

Wells Fargo International Contingent Resource Privacy Notice

This Notice applies to contingent resources in India and the Philippines.

Effective: 11 May 2023

"We," "us," "our," or "Wells Fargo" refers to the Wells Fargo entity which has engaged the firm that employs you, or that you otherwise work for (the "Vendor"), to perform certain services for us. Under this engagement, you will be providing certain services to us on behalf of the Vendor, and Wells Fargo will act as the data controller regarding the collection, use, transfer, and processing of individually identifiable information about you ("Personal Data"). This document is referred to as the "Notice."

Wells Fargo is one of the largest financial institutions in the world and operates globally. As described in Section 2 below, in order to carry out employment-related operations, including administering your contract or employment relationship with the Company, we need to collect, process, and use Personal Data. We also have to meet the different requirements of data protection laws across the world.

Name of group parent: Wells Fargo & Company

Headquarters location: 420 Montgomery Street; San Francisco, CA 94104 USA

Contact information for our designated Officers are listed in Section 8 below.

1. What Personal Data do we collect?

We may collect the following categories of Personal Data in connection with your engagement:

- To contact your family/partner of any emergencies, protecting the health and safety of employees and others, and protecting office equipment, facilities and other property the Company may process master data and emergency contact information.
- To comply with other employment-related legal requirements, such as income tax, national insurance deductions, and applicable employment and immigration laws, the Company may process master data, work contact details, organizational data, visa and work permit data, contract data, and absence data.
- To promote public health and to ensure workplace health and safety, such as in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, where permitted or required by applicable law, the Company may process Personal Data such as certain sensitive health and recent travel information, which may include but not be limited to body temperature, symptom, recent travel, potential or confirmed exposure, testing (including results), and/or vaccination information, and Sensitive Personal Data, for example.

The Company will not process Personal Data for any other purpose incompatible with the purposes outlined in this section, unless it is required or authorized by law, or as authorized by you. For some activities, processing of certain Personal Data continues after individuals cease providing services to the Company. Please see Section 4 below for further information about how long we retain Personal Data.

3. Transfers of Your Personal Data to other Recipients

The Company may make Personal Data available to third parties for Engagement Purposes as described in Section 2 as follows:

- Wells Fargo & Company. Since management, human resources, legal and audit responsibility partially rests with Wells Fargo & Company as the group parent in the United States ("Wells Fargo & Company"), the Company may make Personal Data available to, or otherwise allow access to such data by, Wells Fargo & Company, which may use, transfer, and process the data for the following purposes: to maintain and improve effective administration of the workforce; to maintain a corporate directory; to maintain IT systems; to monitor and assure compliance with the Wells Fargo Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, other policies and procedures, and applicable laws; and to respond to requests and legal demands from regulators and other authorities, including such authorities in the United States.
- Affiliated Entities. To the extent that your management or human resources responsibility for managing your engagement partially rests with different Wells Fargo entities ("Affiliated Entities"), the Company may also make Personal Data available to, or otherwise allow access to such data by, relevant Affiliated Entities, which may use, transfer, and process the data for the following purposes: to maintain and improve effective administration of the workforce; to maintain a corporate directory; to maintain IT systems; to monitor and assure compliance with the Wells Fargo Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, other policies and procedures, and applicable laws; and to respond to requests and legal demands from regulators and other authorities, including authorities in the jurisdictions where the Affiliated Entities are located. The current Wells Fargo & Company 10-K filing, Exhibit 21, made with the US Securities and Exchange Commission provides a list of the Affiliated Entities as of December 31, 2020 (see <https://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/72971/000007297123000071/wfc-1231x2022xex21.htm>)
- Customers and prospects. As necessary in connection with the Engagement Purposes, work contact details may be transferred to customers and other third parties.
- Regulators, authorities, and other third parties. As necessary for the Engagement purposes described above, Personal Data may be transferred to regulators, courts, and other authorities (e.g., tax and law enforcement authorities), lawyers and consultants, independent external advisors (e.g., auditors), and the Wells Fargo & Company Board of Directors, Data processors. As necessary for the Engagement Purposes described above, Personal Data may be shared with one or more parties, whether affiliated or unaffiliated, to process Personal Data under appropriate instructions ("Data Processors"). Such Data Processors will be subject to contractual obligations to implement appropriate administrative, technical, physical, and organizational security measures to safeguard Personal Data, and to process Personal Data only as instructed. Data Processors may carry out instructions related to IT system support, training, compliance, and other legitimate activities, and will be subject to contractual obligations to implement appropriate technical and organizational security measures to safeguard the Personal Data, and to process the Personal Data only as instructed.

- Business transfers, combinations and related activities. As we develop our business, the Wells Fargo Group might sell, buy, acquire, obtain, exchange, restructure or reorganize businesses or assets. In the event of any actual or proposed sale, merger, reorganization, transaction, restructuring, dissolution or any similar event involving our business or assets, Personal Data may be shared with the relevant entity or may be part of the transferred assets and will be subject to any necessary contractual obligations to ensure the protection of Personal Data.

Access to Personal Data within the Company will be limited to those who need to know the information for Employment Purposes and will include but may not be limited to your managers and their designees, and personnel in HR, IT, Compliance, Legal, Finance and Accounting, and in Internal Audit.

All personnel within the Company will generally have access to your business contact information such as name, position, telephone number, work address, and email address.

The recipients of Personal Data identified in this Section 3 may be located in the United States and other jurisdictions that may not provide the same level of data protection as your home country. To the extent required by applicable law, the Company, Wells Fargo & Company, and Affiliated Entities will (i) address any applicable requirement to assure an adequate level of data protection before transferring Personal Data by assuring the execution of appropriate data transfer agreements or confirming other controls, and (ii) establish that Personal Data will be made available to individuals within the recipient entities on a need-to-know basis only for the relevant Engagement Purposes described above. These measures enable us to transfer and use Personal Data in a secure manner anywhere in the world where we have an establishment, or where we have contracted third parties to provide us with services. Please contact the applicable Wells Fargo officer, using the contact information in Section 8, to obtain additional information about these Safeguards or to make such a request.

4. How Your Personal Data is Safeguarded and Retained

Personal Data will be stored in the databases of Wells Fargo and will be held and maintained by Wells Fargo or on behalf of Wells Fargo by Wells Fargo service providers. The Company has implemented appropriate technical, physical and organizational security measures to safeguard Personal Data in accordance with the Company's Information Security Policy and standards. When we retain a non-affiliated entity or service provider to perform a function, that entity will be required to protect workers' Personal Data in accordance with Wells Fargo's standards.

The Company's general practice is not to keep Personal Data longer than necessary for the fulfillment of the purposes outlined in Section 2, in accordance with our standard records retention periods, or as required or appropriate in the jurisdiction where such records or information is retained. However, we and our service providers may need to hold Personal Data beyond these time periods for reasons such as to: i) fulfill the purposes outlined in this Notice; ii) comply with legal or regulatory obligations to which Wells Fargo is subject; or iii) perform a contract duly established with you or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract. We may need to hold Personal Data beyond retention periods in response to a regulatory audit, investigation, or other legal matter. These requirements also apply to our third party service providers. Where required by law, Wells Fargo will anonymize data for additional processing.

Please bear in mind that if, as a result of your engagement you have access to Personal Data of the Company or any of its controlling, subsidiary or affiliated entities, its clients and/or service providers or any third parties, you are obliged to maintain the confidentiality of such Personal Data and are prohibited from sharing such Personal Data with third parties, without authorization of the Company or the individuals. This obligation subsists even after the termination of your engagement.

5. Exercising Your Rights Over Your Personal Data

You may have certain rights under applicable local law to know, update and amend your Personal Data and other rights under local law. These rights may include the rights to request access, correction, suspension of use, porting or deletion of, or the right to object to the processing of, your Personal Data. These rights are not absolute, and exceptions may apply. If we are not able to accommodate your request, you will be provided with reasons for the denial. If you have questions about your Personal Data rights please contact your company supervisor who will raise the queries and concerns with the applicable Wells Fargo officer as listed in Section 8 below.

You may have a right under applicable law to make a complaint about this Notice. Please submit your complaint in writing to your Company's supervisor who will submit the complaint with the applicable Wells Fargo officer. We will respond to a written complaint within 30 days. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may be able to pursue your complaint with your data protection authority or privacy commissioner for your country.

The Company has appointed a contact person ("Contact Person") to respond to your access and correction requests, questions and complaints. Please refer to the contact information in Section 8.

6. Monitoring of Systems, Equipment, and Property

To the extent permitted by local law, and subject to any other local notices or policies, the Company reserves the right to monitor the use of equipment, electronic communication systems, and property, including original and backup copies of email, instant messaging, text messaging, voicemail, internet use, security door access records, computer use activity, voice recordings, video recordings, and presentations hosted by Wells Fargo and CCTV. The Company may engage in such activities to administer IT access, provide IT support, manage security services and access control authorizations, as well as to monitor, investigate, and assure compliance with the Wells Fargo Code of Ethics and Business Conduct and other Company policies and procedures and disciplinary or grievance investigations. The Company also monitors so to ensure the security of its facilities. You should not expect privacy in connection with your use of any equipment, systems, or property.

Even if you create or have access to passwords to protect against unauthorized access to correspondence and activities, using that password does not make the related communications or activities private. In addition, phone calls made or received on any business telephone may be monitored or recorded for legal, regulatory and compliance purposes and/or internal investigations.

Monitoring may be conducted remotely or locally, and related Personal Data collected and processed by, the Company, Wells Fargo & Company, Affiliated Entities, and/or Data Processors using software, hardware or other means. Personal Data obtained through monitoring may be transferred to regulators and other authorities, as well as the Wells Fargo & Company Board of Directors, and other recipients as necessary for the Engagement Purposes described above, including recipients in your home country or other jurisdictions. Personal Data obtained through monitoring, which is relevant to the Engagement Purposes described above, will be retained for reasonable periods to accomplish these purposes, and subject to any rights nonemployees may have under applicable law.

The Company employs measures to protect against abuse of Personal Data that is used for monitoring, including appropriate training and supervision of responsible staff, and periodic review of monitoring programs.
